PORTFOLIO

Hello!

I'm Anita Marshall a Milliner and Headwear Designer based in Melbourne.

2024 has seen the relaunch of my label, with a fresh take and a brand-new direction.

My experience with the millinery industry is, one that has always portrayed a, somewhat 'secret society'.

I am here to bring headwear to the forefront of fashion and to a wider audience.

I really want to bring people in and share this beautiful trade, from start to finish.

My goal is to create a new community of millinery lovers from around the world, one hat at a time.

A CREATIVE JOURNEY, BRINGING YOU THE UNEXPECTED IN THE ART OF MILLINERY

I'm thrilled to be taking a new approach in the way millinery is being viewed.

With the help of social media, I'm able to take you along from the original concept to the finished product.

My skills and techniques have been learned over the years, through traditional teachings as well as range skills outside of millinery.

My hope is to create unique and creative headwear that brings a sense of joy.
